These programs are open to anyone interested in learning about child abuse and most particularly, child sexual abuse, in the United States. The primary purpose is to arm volunteers with the knowledge necessary to keep children safe, to identify persons and practices that represent a threat to children, to understand legal obligations and pitfalls and to change caring adults’ behavior in ways that will make it more difficult for predators of children to succeed. Additionally, the new fourth edition/2018 version, discusses internet/cyber issues impacting our youth with advice to parents on how to protect their children.

The Protecting God’s Children program is restricted to adults who are defined as persons over 18 who have graduated from high school; however, some classes have a special teen leader section available upon advance discussion with the instructor.

Attendees are asked to arrive on time and remain the entire class to receive credentials for attendance. No children are permitted present.

Although teaching “Catholic” policies the program material is both universal and ecumenical; aimed at all who honor a duty to God, family and community. The trainer for ICC is Nora Burke Klippstein (Pah.trained@gmail.com).
